me: I can't get OTR to work on my comp fontaine: Ah, that's totally fine fontaine: Lots of people have issues with it :D And then there are the people who won't talk without it hehe me: I'm actually pretty transparent, rarely use I2P, etc fontaine: Makes sense, actually me: but if someone else needs it, I can go encrypted via other methods me: but for the most part, it would be wrong of me to hide my actions as I get more involved in things as I'm a transparency advocate fontaine: That's an excellent point. Besides, if you aren't encrypting everything, then it makes it easier to prove you're not up to anything... questionable me: true fontaine: As for drinks, sounds lovely. It would be my pleasure to make your acquaintance =) fontaine: How long will you be in NYC?
